We're Partners San Antonio, and we'd like to set a few things straight: first of all, we're a newer and different firm than the company that used to be affiliated with NAI in San Antonio a decade ago. Partners San Antonio officially opened for business in 2015, and we have been hard at work developing deep relationships with our clients and the local community ever since.

Secondly, Partners is a full-service commercial real estate firm, and our unique, independent, industry-leading brokerage platform not only serves San Antonio, but enables our sales professionals to seamlessly collaborate with their colleagues in Houston and Austin as well.

Partners San Antonio can meet your needs—whether it be an office, industrial, retail or land requirement, on either the tenant/landlord or buyer/seller side—throughout Texas. And when those requirements surge past the cozy confines of the Lone Star State, we can leverage the power of the NAI Global network to arrange transactions for you in any location throughout the world.
